Some Words Beginning With H. Most persons aspirate the initial let ter of "humble" nowadays and write "a humble" just as they write "a humbug" or "a humming bird." But there are very many who would not naturally sound an h in "humble," or in "herb," "hospital," "homage," or even "humor." Before the nineteenth century nobody did, though it is clear that the aspirate had become regular by "David Copperfield's" time, from the fact that Dickens harps on Uriah Heap's "'umble." The insistence on the h is comparatively modern; mediaeval men not only said "abit" for "habit," but wrote it so and the Bible has "an Hebrew."

Literally Translated.

On visiting Ireland the great traveler Livingstone was much feted. In Dublin at a dinner party he happened to be placed next to a literary lady who was a very stout woman. She worried him greatly about the language of the savage cannibals among whom he had managed to live and wanted to know the sound of their language. He spoke a sentence of it to satisfy her, and she answered, "Being translated, what does that mean?" "It means," he replied, "there is great cutting on you."

Tobacco Penalties.

The shah of Persia, in the seventeenth century, proclaimed that every soldier in whose possession tobacco was found should have his lips cut; while in the same century Massachusetts ordered that "no person shall take tobacco publicly, and any one shall pay one penny for every time he is convicted of taking tobacco in any place."

"Bigbee has a nerve."

"Why so?" "I threatened to sue him for the $100 he owes me."

"And he asked me to sue him for $200 and give him the other hundred."

Friends and Enemies.

Be assured that those will be thy worst enemies not to whom thou hast done evil, but who have done evil to thee. And those will be thy best friends not to whom thou hast done good, but who have done good to thee .- Lavater.

Mother's Discipline.

This is the way a mother disciplines: She spanks her child for crying for a slice of cake, and then when it cries because of the spanking, she gives it the whole cake to comfort it.-Atchison

Progress, the growth of intelligence and power, is the end and boon of liberty, and without this a people may have the name, but want the substance and spirit of freedom .- Chan-

A Worthy Cause.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 14.-Rev. R. Quarles, who is attending the General Association of Colored Baptists in an address today said: "We are much in need of a church in Claysville, a suburban of Paris, Ky., and this should have the support of all the colored people in this part of the State. We are now holding a camp meeting at Smedley Bros. Grove, near Paris, looking forward to the erection of a church. The meeting opened At guit 19 and will continue until the 26th. we have secured some of the best speakers of our race who will deliver addresses and preach sermons. We want to save the negro and make him a better citizen. We must have good churches, Sunday Schools, and reach out for the young men and women of our churches. We hope to have present several thousand people. We feel sure that some good will be accomplished."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pro-nounced it a local disease and prescribe local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Onio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tea-spoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address:

Why They Left.

A comedian appeared in a four act comedy in a western mining town, according to the Buffalo Commercial. At the end of the third act the miners rose in a body, gathered up their belongings and started to depart. The comedian, in dismay, rushed before the curtain. "Gentlemen," he said, "there is another act yet." "Yes; that's why we are going," said the miners.

Won by Failing.

"What books have benefited you most?" the young reporter inquired of the fabulously rich man.

"Law books," the Croesus promptly replied. "My father intended me for a lawyer, but I failed to pass my examination, and now I'm worth fifty millions."-Cleveland Leader.

Deatness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness, caused by catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHEHEY & CO. Toledo, O.

A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervous-ness and general ill-health. Why? Be-cause a disordered stomach does not per-mit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good, red blood, and we see symptoms of nerv-ousness, sleeplessness and general breakousness, sleeplessness and general break-down. It is not head work, nor over phydown. It is not head work, nor over physical exertion that does it, but poor stomach work.
